Academic Activities

Session-2019-2020

Brief Reports of Academic Activities

1. Wall Magazine: Muse 2019-2020

The English Department's Annual Wall Magazine, Muse 2019-2020, of Khatra Adibasi Mahavidyalaya showcased a powerful theme of "Women Empowerment," paying homage to the trailblazing Savitribai Phule. The wall magazine highlighted the diverse roles and professions undertaken by women, shedding light on their resilience and contribution to society. Featuring an array of sketches, poems, and write-ups, Muse celebrated the multifaceted nature of women's roles, from educators and doctors to artists and activists. The magazine emphasized the importance of breaking societal norms and stereotypes to pave the way for gender equality and empowerment. Through thought-provoking prose and artistic expression, students conveyed the message of Savitribai Phule's legacy, emphasizing the need for education and empowerment for women, leaving a lasting impact on the readers and fostering a culture of inclusivity and progress within the college community. Madhumita Biswas, Assistant Professor, spearheaded the entire process of preparing the wall magazine along with our students.

2. Orientation Programme on CBCS

The Department of English at Khatra Adibasi Mahavidyalaya organized an Orientation Programme for newly admitted students of the 1st Semester, primarily focusing on the newly introduced syllabus under the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) patterns. The programme aimed to familiarize students with the intricacies of the CBCS, including its examination and evaluation patterns, as well as the syllabus structure.

The orientation began with an overview of the CBCS, elucidating its significance in providing students with flexibility in choosing courses according to their interests and career aspirations. Faculty members detailed the examination pattern, highlighting the weightage of internal assessments, end-semester examinations, and project work.

Moreover, the session provided an in-depth understanding of the evaluation pattern, emphasizing continuous assessment through assignments, presentations, and seminars. Students were briefed on the grading system and its correlation with their performance throughout the semester.

Furthermore, the orientation shed light on the revised syllabus, emphasizing its interdisciplinary approach and relevance to contemporary trends in English studies. Faculty members elaborated on the core subjects, elective courses, and skill enhancement courses offered under the CBCS framework.

Overall, the Orientation Programme proved instrumental in equipping students with the requisite knowledge and understanding of the CBCS patterns, examination and evaluation patterns, and the revised syllabus, thereby facilitating a smooth transition into the academic year.

3. International Women's Day Celebration

On 10th March 2020, the Department of English at Khatra Adibasi Mahavidyalaya celebrated International Women's Day in the Language Lab, following the observance of 8th March, which fell on a Sunday. The event was a vibrant celebration of women's achievements and contributions, marked by enthusiastic participation from students. Recitations of empowering poems and speeches highlighting the significance of gender equality echoed through the hall, inspiring everyone present. Students also presented songs and dance performances, portraying the strength, resilience, and beauty of womanhood. The event served as a platform for students to express solidarity with women worldwide, acknowledging their invaluable role in society and advocating for their rights and empowerment. It fostered a sense of unity and camaraderie among the attendees, reinforcing the importance of gender inclusivity and respect.
