Annexure 4: Perspective Plan

Perspective Plan of the Department

The Santali department of the college aims to preserve, promote, and develop the Santali language, literature, and culture. The department aims to be a premier center for the study and promotion of the Santali language, literature, and culture, fostering academic excellence and cultural enrichment. The department seeks to provide comprehensive education in Santali, promote research and preservation of Santali heritage, and engage with the community to sustain and celebrate Santali traditions. The future plan of the Santali department includes:

- 1) Develop a robust curriculum that covers Santali language, literature, history, and culture.
- 2) Integrate modern teaching methods and technology to enhance learning.
- 3) Improve student engagement and academic performance in Santali studies.
- 4) Promote research in Santali language, folklore, and oral traditions.
- 5) Document and preserve Santali manuscripts, folk songs, and stories.
- 6) Encourage interdisciplinary research connecting Santali with other fields such as linguistics and history.
- 7) Strengthen ties with the Santali-speaking community and cultural organizations.
- 8) Organize cultural events, workshops, and seminars to celebrate and promote Santali heritage.
- 9) Collaborate with local and regional bodies to support Santali language initiatives.
- 10) Expand library resources with Santali books, journals, and digital archives.
- 11) Secure funding for departmental projects and activities.
- 12) Develop bilingual and multilingual programs to promote Santali alongside other languages.
- 13) Encourage faculty to attend and present at national and international conferences.
- 14) Support faculty in pursuing advanced studies and research projects in Santali studies.
- 15) Enhance career counseling and placement services for students specializing in Santali.
- 16) Initiate community outreach programs to promote Santali language and culture.
- 17) Conduct more cultural events, festivals, and exhibitions to showcase Santali heritage.
