Future Planning:

The SC & ST Cell of Khatra Adibasi Mahavidyalaya is thinking about the future of the students belonging to the Depressed Class. They know that they need to do a lot to help students who feel inferiority complex in Academia. They want to offer extra help with studies, counselling, and advice. They also want to teach everyone in the college to be more understanding and kind. They plan to provide important information of various scholarships. They'll also work with other groups to help each other out, and give students chances to learn new skills and become self-reliant. They'll critically observe on how things are going, push for fair rules, and keep track of what works well. They'll also organize programmes to celebrate different native cultures and make sure their plans can keep going strong in the future.
