Under the aegis of

IQAC

Khatra Adibasi Mahavidyalaya

Khatra: Bankura

Date: 26th June, 2024

Concept Note:

Department of Music with Teachers` Council under the aegis of IQAC, Khatra Adibasi Mahavidyalaya is pleased to announce a one-day national seminar titled Harmonies and Hermeneutics: Aesthetics of Indian Music Genres on 26th June, 2024 at Gurusaday Mancha, Khatra. This seminar aims to immerse students of Indian music genres in a comprehensive exploration of both theoretical insights and practical musical performances as represented by hermeneutics and harmonies respectively. The event will feature enriching discussions by academicians and performances by practitioners encompassing both the sides of performing arts. The takeaway for participants will be the foundational theories underpinning classical raags and the contemporary innovations shaping the landscape of Indian music today. The seminar will provide an encouraging platform for students to feel motivated to take up music course in their undergraduate programme. This seminar not only aims to deepen students` understanding of Indian music genres but also seeks to inspire a renewed appreciation for its harmonious layering and interpretative depth. Participants can expect a stimulating academic environment and mellifluous performances that celebrates the richness and diversity of Indian musical traditions.
