Aims and Objectives:

The Red Ribbon has become an international symbol of solidarity and support for people living with HIV. The colour red was chosen for its, "connection to blood and the idea of passion -- not only anger, but love, like a valentine," the Project founders say. Volunteers of Red Ribbon Club, NSS Unit-II, Khatra Adibasi Mahavidyalaya organized a Street Play in the adopted village Kharbon to create awareness about AIDS.

The seminar was organized keeping in mind the following objectives:

- to provide correct information to the people in the village about how and when AIDS disease spreads among people through the enactment of the street play
- to make them aware about dis/misinformation and misleading myths about the AIDS.
- to make them aware about the ways of preventing the spread of this dangerous virus among people.
