Report on Dengue Awareness Programme

The NSS wing of Khatra Adibasi Mahavidyalaya successfully organized a Dengue Awareness Programme in association with Supur Gram Panchayet V.R.P on 10/12/2019 in the college premises (Hall-2). Around 100 NSS student - volunteers along with other students assembled to take part in the programme and took their responsibilities to ensure the successful completion of the endeavour. Moreover, some of the faculties other than NSS Programme Officers engaged themselves in this programme.

Action taken –

1. NSS Programme Officers informed and inspired the NSS volunteers to participate in this programme.
2. A notice was issued in the college website. NSS Volunteers took enthusiastic initiative for wider circulation of the programme.
3. Three members of Supur Gram Panchayet came with banners and with strong and appealing slogans and effective messages on Dengue to organize the programme.
4. They delivered their talks that reflect their erudition on the subject.
5. The discussion part became extended as students were very curious to ask various questions on the issue. The experts easily explained the medical aspects of the disease Dengue.

The dignitaries asked the students to make their acquaintances aware of the following facts –

1. Use Mosquito Repellent
2. Wear Protective Clothing
3. Use mosquito deterrents
4. Refrain from breeding grounds
5. Avoid smells that attract mosquitoes

6. Make sure your home is well-lit
7. Be knowledgeable about dengue fever

The outcome of the programme –

- ❖ All participants became aware of the facts relevant to Vector Borne Diseases.
- ❖ The participants appreciated the programme as they acknowledged that many of their doubts were clarified because of the extended discussion with the experts on medical dimensions of the disease.
- ❖ The participants took pledge that they would make others aware of the preventive measures and dangers of the fatal disease.
